

CHURCH CONTRIBUTIONS TO PETERSFIELD NEWSPAPERS FOR 2021

1. The column is Faith Comment in the Petersfield Post. Please aim at about 300 words for the articles for the Post, and provide your own heading to the article (although the editors do seem keen to exercise their own choice).
2. At the top of each page include the author's name and contact number and the name of your church and the date for publication.
3. Please would you email your copy to John Studd: webmaster@pact.org.uk. John will forward the article to The Post eight days before the publication date.
4. Our churches in the Petersfield area are unique in having the co-operation of a local newspaper and it is therefore vital that we seek to make their task as easy as possible. The main reason the newspaper fails to print our articles is that we have either missed the deadline or forgotten it is our turn.
5. John will try to send you an email in plenty of time to remind you that an article is due – but do not rely on this to have an article written and emailed to him!
