How Could We Ignore Him

Milestones in our lives are often a cause for celebrations (we have recently celebrated 50 years together), or sometimes the opposite where we regret what said, done, failed to achieve or even remember. Our memory is so much better on our favourite people, topics and what we are most passionate about. Football, tennis, cricket, films, musicians, and all those who star or influence! Family members we are quick to recall with their achievements and anniversaries.

Saint Paul from Scripture speaks of his passion for Jesus in the second book of Corinthians Chapter 11 v23-28 and what this passion cost him from that time AD 46-to AD 67.

He considers “my life is worth nothing to me; my only aim is to finish the race and complete the task The Lord Jesus has given me ---the task of testifying to the good news of God’s grace” Acts 20 v24

“So we should make it our goal to please Him. “2 Corinthians 5 v9... here comes the idea of pleasing God before ourselves or our interests.

I enclose two of my poems written during late June 2025. These express thoughts which I have yet to achieve however would still like to share them with each of you.

Have you heard?

Scripture tells us of an unbelievable love,
available to everyone from God up above.
Jesus came to free us from sin, covering our failures from within.

In order to accept this heavenly love,
we must desire to seek Him above.
He wants our attention each and every day,
Whether at home, work or play.

He offers us hope, peace joy and a lift,
nothing we can do to receive this gift!
Jesus hopes we’ll connect by prayer, praise, love-song and sharing worship to Him belong.

So how do we show we’ve heard the good news?
Choosing life before thrill, possessions, food, booze.
His ways – love, mercy, justice, kindness and care.
Our’s to copy Him, reminding the world He is there!

Everyone is Welcome.

Jesus my Saviour God and King,
who cares for each and every living thing,
He wants relationships with us young and old as each human is precious to behold.

Refrain This, this is Christ the King, who treasures time each human brings
each of us from death and sin
to the loving eternal kingdom bring

God the Father He who planned, our freedom beginning in the land.
He knew we'd each against him fail
the scripture writings and "Jesus' tale".

Refrain This, this is Christ the King
who treasures time each human brings
each of us from death and sin
to the loving eternal kingdom bring

We're taught to forgive all of those,
Jesus says if our debts count not to pose a weight upon our hearts and bring God's wraith and separation by our sin!

Refrain This, this is Christ the King,
who treasures time each human brings
and wants eternity to show separation is not the way to go.

The message clearly said "obey and love"
all instructions sent from above, Jesus, God the Son says how Eternal Life not sorrow starts now!

Refrain This, this is Christ the King
Who treasures time each human being,
And wants eternity to show
That separation is not the way to go.

So we've been given a choice this life,
And a warning to avoid eternal strife.
Absolutely essential "in Christ" to grow
And through God the Son, his Father know.

Refrain A habit of worship, thanks and praise, times of prayer, scripture and song we raise to our God; Father, Spirit, Son, our life together has just begun!
